

Ohio Goes Modern Display at AIA Reg. Conference

Cincinnati Form Follows Function CF3 and the Cleveland Goes Modern Modernist Preservation group will both be displaying their exhibits in the River Center Lobby of the N. KY Convention Center. The exhibits are open to the public and there is no charge for admission. CF3 and the Cincinnati Preservation Association, CPA, collaborated on the design of the two new panels to add to our existing six panels. The new panels illustrate the Terrace Plaza Hotel and Greenhills. Patrick Snadon, Shawn Patrick Tubb, Chuck Lohre, Terri Treinen, Paul Richardson, Alex Christoforidis, the Greenhills Historical Society and the CPA helped with the exhibit, editing and photo research.

For more information about the conference go to the AIA OHIO site.

The displays will be unpersoned for the two days. We'll have literature racks there with CF3 and CPA membership forms.

CF3 would like thank our Modern Sponsor Enriching Spaces for donating the material and printing for the new banners. And they also provided the original banners. Dawn Schwartzman has been a supporter from the beginning of CF3 and we appreciate her company's assistance.
